COURAGE MAGAZINE

Pilot Issue

V. 1-3

1970 - 1973

Three volumes of Courage Magazine were published from April, 1970 to Winter/Spring, 1973. There were a total of eleven issues. It was designed as a quarterly publication, published by Venture Foundation in Lamoni, Iowa. Courage was edited by individuals who belonged or were associated with the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. However, it had no official connection with either Graceland College or the RLDS Church.

This index is an alphabetical index with subjects and authors interfiled. All articles, letters, editorials, book reviews, poems, and documents are indexed. The articles, letters, and editorials are listed by authors and also by subjects where appropriate. When a person wrote a letter referring to any of these three items, that letter will also be indexed under the author of the item. Subjects are all in upper case letters. Subjects were determined by using the subject authority index located in the RLDS Library and Archives, The Auditorium, Independence, Missouri.
